

Journalist

What's your role?

You will be a part of the team that creates the weekly program 'Live with Torben.'

During each week's program we show a section of things God is doing in the network around the world. It's your job to find and collect testimonies worth sharing from around the world.

One way to do this is to make video calls and record small 2 minutes testimonies which will be incorporated in the program.

You can also tell stories yourself, and accompany them with relevant pictures.
