

Video Editor Testimonies

What's your role?

You will be part of the team that creates the weekly program 'Live with Torben.'

Every week, we show a few prerecorded testimonies from around the world that people have sent in.

This section will be around 7 minutes. You are responsible for creating this part of the program and making sure it's ready for review several days before the day of the broadcast.

You work closely with the producer and the person(s) responsible for collecting the testimonies from around the world.
